

Appositives

vs

Not Appositives

START	Sue, my sister has a cold.	My brother ate pickles.	Ann, my aunt, took Sue to lunch.	Martha came to visit.	GO AHEAD 3 SPACES
	Sue is the head gardener.	Tom is a sports fan.	Ann, the seamstress, made two new dresses.	Jack, the mechanic, couldn't fix my car.
	Mark, the arranger, added drums to the song.	My dad, the mayor, is busy today.	Bill, the musician, plays the drums.	Sue is our babysitter.
	Sue, our aunt, played games with us.	My brother, the chef, ate pickles.	Sue, the head gardener, planted flowers.	Mark arranged the song to have drums.
FINISH	The mechanic fixed my car.	Martha, my aunt, came to visit.	Mike played a calypso beat on his guitar.	Tom, the chef, made pancakes.	GO AHEAD 3 SPACES
	Tom, the sportscaster, broadcast live.	Mike, the guitarist, played a calypso beat.	Ann made two new dresses.	Bill plays the drums.
	Sue has a cold.

FIG. 63